

Before leaving the hospital, all patients should know:

What medications to take

How they might feel and what to do

Changes to make to their routine

Appointments they have to go to

Where to go for more information

