

Before leaving the hospital, all patients should know:

What medications to take

How they might feel and what to do

Changes to make to their routine

Appointments they have to go to

Where to go for more information

Before leaving the hospital, all patients should know:

What medications to take

How they might feel and what to do

Changes to make to their routine

Appointments they have to go to

Where to go for more information

